

DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

Security Committee

SECOM-D-573

40 JUL 1979

Mr. Robert Drake
Deputy Director
National Security Agency
Fort Meade, Maryland 20755

Dear Mr. Drake:

I thank you for your support of the Security Committee and for serving as the host for the 6 June meeting. Your concerns about security, especially in the technical area are justified and are shared by the Committee. Attention to these problems by top management personnel, such as yourself, will serve to strengthen the Intelligence Community security effort and thereby decrease our vulnerability to technical penetration attacks.

Please express my appreciation to [] of your STATINTL Office of Security for making the arrangements for the meeting and for the pleasant and efficient manner in which the meeting and support services were handled. I would also like to express my appreciation to [] of STATINTL your technical staff for the excellent presentation and laboratory demonstrations of the current technical threat. This type of presentation serves to make the Community more conscious of potential technical penetration efforts by hostile intelligence services and better enables the Intelligence Community to develop more effective counter-measures procedures and equipment.

Sincerely,

[]

STATINTL
